LAWYERS IN THE CLASSROOM

"The foundation of every state is the education of its youth"
-Diogenes Laertius

Lawyers in the Classroom is a program designed to provide opportunities for students of all ages to interact with lawyers and judges in the classroom to further their understanding of the law. Volunteer speakers are available for presentations in area schools (elementary, middle and high school). There are a variety of law-related topics available for discussion, including juvenile law, careers in law and your rights as you become an adult, just to name a few.

If you are interested in our Lawyers in the Classroom program, please fill out this form and return it to the Vermont Bar Association, P.O. Box 100, Montpelier, VT 05601-0100.
