

Andrew Manitsky represents clients in state and federal courts, and other tribunals, throughout Vermont and New York in a wide variety of complex civil matters, including breach of contract, business torts, employment-related disputes, professional malpractice, ethics complaints, personal injury, product liability, antitrust, family law, scientific misconduct, regulatory investigations, and intellectual property (litigating and counseling on trademark, unfair competition, copyright, patent, and trade secrets). He is a Past-President of the Vermont Bar Association and Chair of the VBA's Intellectual Property Section.

Mr. Manitsky is also a member of the American Law Institute, the VBA Board of Managers, the Vermont MCLE Board, a past member of the Vermont Professional Responsibility Board hearing panel (and Probable Cause panel), and the Mediation-ENE Panel for the United States District Court in Vermont. He frequently gives seminars on intellectual property, trial evidence, and legal ethics.

Mr. Manitsky is listed in Best Lawyers in America; New England Super Lawyers; Chambers USA: America's Leading Lawyers for Business; and Benchmark's Guide to America's Leading Litigation Firms and Attorneys. Before moving to Vermont in 2000, he practiced at a boutique firm in New York City.