

Tracy Borst has served as the elected Town Clerk for the Town of Thetford, Vermont, since 2003. As Thetford's election administrator, she has more than two decades of hands-on experience conducting local, state, and federal elections and navigating the ever-changing responsibilities of Vermont's municipal clerks.

Tracy is a Master Municipal Clerk (MMC) and serves on the U.S. Election Assistance Commission's Local Leadership Council, bringing the perspective of Vermont's local election officials to national conversations about election administration. She is also a member of the Vermont League of Cities and Towns Board of Directors and is active in clerk education and professional development at both the state and national levels.
