

Kira Botting is an associate at Rousseau & Ross, PLLC, a personal injury and civil litigation law firm based in Lebanon, New Hampshire. Kira successfully completed the Vermont Law Office Study Program in 2022. She serves as founding co-chair of the VBA's Law Office Study Section, chair of the Vermont Association for Justice's CLE Committee, and as a volunteer attorney for the Vermont Asylum Assistance Project. Before pursuing her legal education, Kira earned her bachelor's degree in Art History and Sociology from DePaul University in Chicago, Illinois. Kira is passionate about legal education, community, and accessibility. She will moderate and participate in the panel.