

Andre Bouffard joined Downs Rachlin Martin in 1987 after a clerkship with Hon. William C. Hill of the Vermont Supreme Court. He is a 1986 graduate of the University of Maine School of Law, where he was Executive Editor of the Maine Law Review. His practice areas are bankruptcy and creditor's right litigation, appellate litigation, trust and estate litigation and commercial litigation. He is a Fellow of the American College of Mortgage Attorneys, a Senior Fellow of the Litigation

Counsel of America, and member of the American Bankruptcy Institute. He has experience representing creditors with distressed real estate collateral owned by debtors in bankruptcy, as well as parties seeking to acquire real estate from a bankruptcy estate. He is a native of St. Johnsbury and now lives in S. Burlington.