

Elizabeth A. Glynn (Betsy) is a Vermont attorney with more than 30 years of experience in private practice, representing businesses, financial institutions, and other clients in commercial transactions, commercial real estate, creditors' rights, workouts, restructurings, and bankruptcy matters. Her practice has included extensive work involving commercial real estate acquisitions and dispositions, financing, foreclosures, and transactions arising in or out of bankruptcy. Ms. Glynn has also represented the United States Bankruptcy Trustee, Ray Obuchowski, as Special Counsel in complex bankruptcy real estate sale transactions, giving her direct experience with the issues that arise in the administration and disposition of commercial real estate in bankruptcy. For many years, Ms. Glynn was a director, shareholder, and managing partner of Ryan Smith & Carbine, Ltd. in Rutland. She is now Of Counsel to Ryan Smith & Carbine, Ltd. She is admitted to practice in Vermont and Connecticut and in the federal courts of those jurisdictions. Ms. Glynn has been recognized by Chambers USA, Best Lawyers in America, and Super Lawyers publications, and has received an AV rating from Martindale-Hubbell.