

Laura E. Gorsky, Esq. was born and raised on her family's dairy farm in Stillwater, New York, Laura has a passion for country life and is happy to call Vermont her home. Laura graduated with a B.S. from Cornell University. After college, she moved to Vermont to pursue a legal career. She obtained a Paralegal Certificate from Woodbury College in 2008 and began working for Attorney David Sunshine upon graduation. Under David's supervision and mentorship, Laura enrolled as a Registered Law Clerk and successfully completed the Law Office Study ("LOS") program. Laura was admitted to the Vermont Bar in 2017. During July 2019, she opened her own solo law practice located in Richmond, Vermont.

Laura enjoys the small, rural, general practice of law. Her practice focuses on real estate (with a strong interest in farms, mobile homes and mobile home parks), as well as tax sales, estate planning, and simple probate matters. She lives in Fletcher, Vermont with her husband and their two (2) dogs. Laura continues to be involved in her family's farming operation today, and is enthusiastic about all things agriculture.
