

Timothy Lueders-Dumont, Esq. is the Executive Director of the Vermont Department of State's Attorneys and Sheriffs, a position he has held since January 2025. Based in Montpelier, he oversees statewide operations for Vermont's State's Attorneys and Sheriffs, including management of central office staff, budgeting, position allocation, labor relations, legislative advocacy, and intergovernmental coordination. Lueders-Dumont joined the Department in 2021 as Deputy State's Attorney in Washington County and later served as its Legislative and Assistant

Appellate Attorney, leading policy and legislative work. His earlier public service experience includes roles as a U.S. District Court Judicial Extern, Fellow with Fair and Just Prosecution, Legal Intern at the Vermont Attorney General's Office, Policy Director for the Vermont State Treasurer, and Staff Assistant to U.S. Congressman Peter Welch, along with additional positions in state and federal government. He is a graduate of the University of Maine School of Law.