

Aaron Monahan, Esq. currently works as Underwriting Counsel as part of the Vermont and New Hampshire First American Agency Teams. Also, he is currently one of the co-chairs of First American's Bankruptcy Practice Group. Prior to joining First American, Aaron was an attorney at a Massachusetts law firm focused on all aspects of residential and commercial real estate closings. His responsibilities included reviewing title examinations for clearance, drafting and negotiating purchase and sale agreements, drafting deeds, powers of attorney, affidavits, and closing settlement statements. His background also includes experience serving as a senior underwriting paralegal for a national title insurance underwriter, commercial real estate paralegal, and senior paralegal for law firms in Massachusetts.