

David F. Silver is a trial attorney with 42 years of experience. He joined the Bennington law firm of Barr Sternberg Moss Silver & Munson as a partner in 1992. He is Board Certified in Criminal Trial Advocacy by the National Board of Trial Advocacy (www.nbtanet.org). His law practice concentrates on criminal defense and plaintiff's personal injury litigation in the state and federal courts.

David graduated with honors from Cardozo Law School in 1983. After graduating from law school, he worked as a public defender with The Legal Aid Society of New York in the Bronx office before moving on to become a public defender in the federal system as a staff attorney for the Federal Division, Southern District of New York, of the Legal Aid Society of the City of New York from 1987-1990. After moving to Vermont with his family in 1990, David served as a Bennington County Public Defender for two years.

David is a Director of the Vermont Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers, a member of the National Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers, and a member of the Board of Governors of the Vermont Association of Justice.

From 1986 through 2013, David was a member of the faculty of the Cardozo School of Law Intensive Trial Advocacy Program.