LEGAL MEMBER CATEGORIES

A Legal Member is a member of the Bar of the Supreme Court of the State of Vermont, who has his or her principal office in Vermont.

A Retired Legal Member is a member of the Bar of the Supreme Court of the State of Vermont who has reached the age of 65 and has retired, except for pro bono representation. (An attorney who has been a VBA member for 40 years and is 75 years of age or older is considered an Emeritus Member, and no longer needs to pay dues to be entitled to VBA member benefits.)

A “Principal Office Outside VT” Legal Member is a member of the Bar of the Supreme Court of the State of Vermont, who has his or her principal office outside of Vermont.

A Law Professor Legal Member is any full or part-time professor of law at an American Bar Association accredited law school located in the State of Vermont, who is not a member of the Bar of the Supreme Court of the State of Vermont.

ASSOCIATE MEMBER CATEGORIES

A Clerk Associate Member is registered with the Board of Bar Examiners of the Vermont Supreme Court and is in at least the second year of the four-year clerkship study period.

A Student Associate Member is enrolled in an accredited law school in the United States.

A Paralegal Associate Member is a paralegal certified by a Vermont attorney, according to the standards adopted by the Board of Managers (see VBA Constitution) or is a voting member, in good standing, with the Vermont Paralegal Organization (the VPO).

An “Interest in the Law” Associate Member is any other person who has an interest in the law and whose membership the Board of Managers determines to be in the interests of the Association. Such a person may become an Associate non-voting Member of the Association upon application and approval by a majority vote of the members of the Board of Managers present and voting at any Board of Managers Meeting, and upon payment to the Treasurer of the Association dues.

A “Licensed Outside VT” Associate Member is an attorney licensed to practice law in another state or jurisdiction, but is not licensed to practice law in Vermont.
