

Brattleboro

A free public talk

1st Wednesdays

Brooks
Memorial Library
802.254.5290
7:00 PM

Underwriters

Statewide:

The Alma Gibbs
Donchian Foundation

Vermont Department of Libraries

The Windham
Foundation

Program:

The Andrew W.
Mellon Foundation
in partnership with
Pulitzer Prizes

Chroma Technology
Crosby-Gannett Fund
Carole and Geof Gaddis
Vermont Bar Association

Library Sponsors:

Against the Grain
Brattleboro Auto Body
& Detailing
Brattleboro Food Co-op
Brattleboro Savings & Loan and Park Place Financial Advisors

New Chapter

The Richards Group
Windham World Affairs
Council

A program of

Vermont Humanities

vermonthumanities.org

802.262.2626

Writing the Life of Frederick Douglass

DECEMBER 5

7:00 PM

Brooks Memorial
Library, Brattleboro

Yale historian David Blight, author of a new biography of Frederick Douglass, tells Douglass's story: an escaped slave who became one of the leading abolitionists, orators, and writers of his era.

Underwriter: Vermont Bar Association

Statewide
Underwriters

