

Vermont Bench & Bar Listening Tours 2019

Chief Justice Paul Reiber, VBA President Gary Franklin along with VBA Executive Director Teri Corsones, traveled to each county in the State to personally meet with the local bar, local legislators, interested stakeholders in the legal system and members of the public to listen and actively demonstrate interest in each community visited. In each county, the Presiding Judge of the Unit and the local County Bar Association President also participated on the panels. Below is a list of the counties visited, locations and panelists. Please click on the highlighted counties to view video of the listening tours where local cable channels recorded the program.
