

Federal Court Brown Bag Bench Bar Meeting

The United States District Court for the District of Vermont invites members of the Vermont Bar to a special Bench Bar Meeting. Join us for a unique opportunity to engage with the federal bench in an open forum with meaningful dialogue between attorneys and the federal judges who serve our district.

Meeting Highlights:

- Provide feedback to the Court on practice and procedures.
- Learn directly from the judges about courtroom expectations and recent developments.
- Engage in open discussion and ask questions in a collegial setting.
- Network with fellow practitioners and members of the judiciary.

Whether you are a seasoned litigator or newer to federal practice, this is your chance to help strengthen our legal community through communication and collaboration.
